Library Policy - Introduction

The Greenfield University Library was founded in 1985 and is located in the Science Block, second floor. The library serves all students, teachers and staff of the university.

The library is open from 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM, Monday to Friday. On Saturday it is open from 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM. The library is closed on Sundays and public holidays.

A valid student ID card is required to enter the library and to borrow any item. Visitors from outside the university must register at the front desk.

Borrowing Rules

Undergraduate students can borrow up to 5 books at a time for a period of 14 days. Postgraduate students can borrow up to 8 books for 21 days.

Books can be renewed online up to 2 times, unless another student has reserved them. Reference books and past exam papers cannot be taken outside the library.

Laptops can be borrowed for 3 hours inside the library only. A student must leave the ID card at the desk while using a library laptop.

Fines and Penalties

A late return fine of Rs. 10 per day is charged for every overdue book. The maximum fine for one book is Rs. 500.

If a book is lost, the student must pay the full price of the book plus a processing fee of Rs. 200. If a book is damaged, the fine is decided by the head librarian.

Students with unpaid fines cannot borrow new books or receive their final degree certificate until all dues are cleared.

Digital Resources and Study Rooms

The library provides free access to 12 online research databases from every campus computer. Students can also log in from home using their student email and the library password.

There are 6 group study rooms on the third floor. Each room can seat up to 8 students and can be booked for a maximum of 2 hours per day. Booking is done at the front desk or through the library website.

Silence must be maintained in the reading hall. Food and drinks are not allowed anywhere inside the library, except water in a closed bottle.
